Respondent (Plaintiff)

Bhairavaiya & Narasamma. (Respondent).

(2) Order No. 3796/Rt-798 dated 15th October 1895; directing the Lower Court to try the additional issue framed by Govt as regards the question of adoption by the

In 1872, Appellant's father Bhairavaiya who was the registered Shanbhog of Kanchanhalli and 11 other villages addressed a petition to the Amildar stating that in the partition effected between his

Timmalacharya filed his elder brother's son Timma-

Shanbhogs of Kanekallu and 6 other villages had filed a suit against Timmalacharya and requested that the Sarvarai might be made in his name. ~~In this~~ ~~suit the Munsiff Timma-~~ ~~charya in the latter~~ ~~was dismissed. Timmacharya~~ ~~appealed, and on September~~ ~~1872, directed a fresh~~ ~~suit. Bhaviraya's claim~~ ~~decided in the meanwhile, Timm-~~ ~~appayya died and his~~ ~~widow and sons defended~~ for the office. ~~But~~ The Court Commr passed no decree as the defendant Bhaviraya was then a minor, and ordered that the office of all the 12 villages of these villages

Summary action on the application being refused and Bhaviraya having died in the meanwhile, Timmappayya's widow Venkamma & his son (Defts) should be registered in the minor's name, and that Sivanadaswarajah might conduct all the duties ad interim. This was in July 1873 Sivanadaswarajah expressed his inability to conduct the duties of all the 12 villages and requested that he might be permitted to do the duties of the 7 villages that fell to his share, those of the remaining villages continuing to be done by the minor's grandfather Bhaskaravaja. ~~This appeared appears to have been correct in March 1873~~ Accordingly Sivanadaswarajah conducted the duties till he died without issue in 1880. No permanent arrangement was made till 1887, when the defendant- on attaining his majority- was allowed to ~~take charge of both the Firkas and to continued~~ to discharge the duties of both the firkas. In 1892, Narasamma widow of Tirumaladevaraya ~~again brought filed~~ a suit to recover the Shanbhogi of Kancherlla and 6 other villages. The defendant denied the ~~[illegible]~~ relied on by the Plff ~~of the Shanbhogi villages in 1877~~, but both the Sub- & officer and the Deputy Commr held that it was proved and decreed the office in favour of the Plaintiff whereupon Bhairavaya appeals to Govt.

2. At the first hearing of the appeal, the Plaintiff state that she had adopted a boy Named Venkatesaiya as her son. The Defendant disputing the adoption, the case was remanded to the Lower Court for trial of the additional issue framed on the point, and for submission of proposals regarding the equitable adjustment of the claims of the parties in regard to the distribution of villages without interfering with the Shanbhogi charges fixed at the time of the Potigi Settlement. The Deputy Commr now submits the Sub Dr Officer's finding on the issue to the effect that the adoption has been satisfactorily proved; and reports that charges ~~are not exceeding~~ being
